

Learning Objectives

Course: Globally good school leadership

- ✓ To gain an understanding of the historical turning point humanity has arrived at and its implications for the educational system
- ✓ To learn about the potential of schools to act as spaces for promoting personal and societal transformation
- ✓ To gain an understanding of the nature of transformative development and learned relevant leadership qualities and skills
- ✓ To learn about how to create developmental visions and how to use these in helping students develop their transformative agency
- ✓ To reflect on various aspects of human nature in relation to fostering the holistic development of students as human beings and globally transformative agents
- ✓ To learn about how to view the school in a systemic perspective and open it up to collaboration and interaction with other agencies and organizations
- ✓ To learn how to lead the development of a school as a miniature society to become a coherent, warm, and dynamic learning community
- ✓ To learn how to lead so as to make the best of all forms of diversity at the school
- ✓ To learn about the benefits and ways of international collaboration in order to promote the vision of the school
- ✓ Learn how to take charge of one's personal and professional development as a globally good educational leader